

COMPLIMENTARY EXHIBITOR REGISTRATION FORM

Admission to Staffing World events and the Staffing World expo is by official ASA name badge only. All exhibitor personnel must register with ASA and pay any appropriate fees. Each 10-by-10-foot exhibit space rental includes two complimentary full expo registration packages. Use this complimentary exhibitor registration form to redeem your complimentary registrations. Additional exhibitor personnel may purchase registration packages at a reduced exhibitor rate. Use the exhibitor registration form to register additional personnel above your complimentary registrations. The complimentary full expo registration packages and the exhibitor discount rates are available only to individuals employed by the exhibitor, and not to consultants, clients, or guests for whom the exhibitor is purchasing registrations. Consultants, clients, and guests of exhibitors must register with ASA and pay appropriate fees to participate in Staffing World events and to enter the exhibit hall.

The exhibitor discount cannot be combined with the 20% team discount available to nonexhibitor attendees.

How to Register Determine if you're purchasing an expo-only, convention and expo, or guest registration package. Expo registration offers attendance at educational sessions on a space-available basis. The convention and expo registration package includes unrestricted access to workshops and tickets to events noted in each package. The corresponding column describes what is included in each registration package. The full packages provide registration over the entire course of Staffing World 2009 events. One-day packages and single event tickets may be purchased for shorter stays. Staffing World exhibitors generally find the full registration packages to be the most economical. Guest packages are reserved for spouses or friends accompanying an attendee or exhibitor in a social capacity. The host attendee or exhibitor must purchase a full registration package, and the guest may not be an employee of or otherwise affiliated with a staffing firm or industry supplier. All keynotes, workshops, and Knowledge Network are excluded from guest packages; guest registrants who attend any of these events will be automatically upgraded to a full convention and expo package and charged accordingly.

To register, complete pages 1 and 2. On page 2, enter the price of the package you're registering for, note the appropriate price in the payment information section, and include the price of any ticketed program you're purchasing. Submit your forms and payment to ASA.
