Tips on Submitting ASA Award Entries: Care, VOICE, and National Staffing Employee of the Year

ASA provides staffing companies a number of ways to earn recognition for the work that they do. Association awards present opportunities for members to connect with their communities and local media outlets.

During this Webinar, Tracy Rettie, ASA assistant vice president for chapter relations and education, and Reem El-Khatib, ASA public relations coordinator, will review details about the ASA Care Award, Staffing VOICE Awards, and National Staffing Employee of the Year Award.

This 60-minute session, which is free for all participants, will give you the information you need to know as you consider which association awards your company or chapter should enter. You'll also learn how to best prepare to submit a winning entry.
