

Certification Renewal Application

As a certified staffing professional, keeping your professional development up-to-date is important. To retain the Certified Staffing Professional™ and Technical Services Certified™ designations without retesting, all designees are required to recertify every three years by earning 30 hours of continuing education credits. Six of the hours must pertain to employment law. Note: Continuing education hours are kept on file and don't need to be resubmitted with this application.

I have fulfilled the continuing education requirement and would like to renew my designation.
